

INVESTMENT MANAGEMENT

Led by an integrated platform of French, English, and US lawyers, Gide's Investment Management practice group advises asset managers, investment funds and institutional investors on all aspects of fund activities. The group combines the unique expertise of both common law and civil law lawyers.

Through a global network of 12 offices in Europe, Asia, North America, Africa and the Middle East, no matter where a fund makes its investments or offers its securities, Gide can provide comprehensive and local legal advice on the following matters:

- Fund structuring
- Taxation
- Financial services regulations
- Negotiations of key agreements, with custodians, broker-dealers, distributors
- Regulatory investigations and disciplinary litigations

An Extensive Knowledge of the Funds Industry

Gide has an extensive knowledge of the funds industry. We advise on and structure numerous types of funds, including:

- Private equity and venture funds
- Real estate funds
- Infrastructure funds
- Debt funds
- UCITS funds

We are actively involved in the consultation process which precedes new legislation and regulations and in the development of French and European policy-making. Our lawyers have close working relationships with national regulators (French Treasury, French regulator, FCA) and provide significant support to industry and trade bodies (AIMA, Invest Europe and France Invest). We ensure that our clients can satisfy the ever-changing regulatory requirements and that their funds can pursue their investment strategy.

“Strong private equity team with particular focus on venture capital and fund-raising, acting for both investors and emerging companies. Recognised for its expertise in the technology sector. Also noted for its fund formation practice advising on the structuring of venture capital, real estate and infrastructure funds with further experience of fund of funds. Sources laud the group’s availability as well as the lawyers’ ‘faultless commitment to their clients.’ »

Chambers Europe 2019

“The ‘truly transaction-oriented’ Gide ‘always delivers an outstanding level of service’, with ‘a great response in terms of time, substance and general guidance’ and, according to one client, has ‘by far the best mix of technical expertise and practical experience among asset management lawyers’. The team ‘knows the industry in France, Europe and North Africa’ and is considered ‘a trendsetter with a reliable global network’ as well as ‘a great partner for long-term matters as it provides stability’. »
